

REPRESSION OF PEACE, TEARS OF DEMOCRACY AND MISTREATMENT OF HUMAN RIGHTS

A DISCUSSION POINT

BY

~ ~ CYPRIAN F. EDWARD-EKPO, LL.D ~ ~

Director-General, Institute of Law Research & Development of United Nations (ILAWDUN) Inc., Washington D.C, USA; Director & Board member, Universal School of Eclectic Analysis, Legal Research & Law Studies (UNISERL), Suffolk, United Kingdom; PHU's Distinguished Professor of International Environmental Law, Newark, Delaware, USA; & SIA's Professor of Public International Law (h. c), London, UK; Chief Executive Officer & Dean of Research, Multi-Intelligence Development LLC (Legal Consultants & Administrators); Registrar, International Institute for Humanitarian & Environmental Law; and Director, International Affairs & UN Ambassadorial Representative for International Peace Commission (IPC), Dallas, TX, USA.

[DECEMBER 18, 2025]

One of the trends of natural law violation is failure or refusal of an individual to know and treat the disease he is suffering from.

When you know exactly what you are suffering from, you are then free to choose the prescribed medical treatment that seems most appropriate in helping nature neutralize your disorder.

The rights and freedoms enshrined in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights pertain to all human beings. Everyone, regardless of their race, sex, religion and belief is entitled to the rights and freedoms affirmed in that instrument and other human rights instruments that speak the voice of the law of nature - which echoes the precept:

" Do NOT do unto others what you wouldn't wish others to do unto you."

For centuries, the natural law rights system has expanded to protect the expression of both popular and unpopular opinions in a democracy.

It is in those opinions, no matter how controversial or unconventional they might appear, that we can feel and see the depth of our fellow human cries and needs, and where necessary, to deploy compassion, love and law to teach the reasons which they must turn toward good if their opinions are found to be delusional or against nature.

It is easy to live in peace with ourselves and others and leave a mark of goodness on this world rather than leave a stain of pain. What makes this difficult is simply an EGO Spirit that inhabits each delusional man and woman.

It is only at the realization of this dimension and destruction of our ego that we can collectively embrace and enjoy the loveliness and peace that is inherent in humanity.

With my heart love, God bless you.

NOTE: The Author, Cyprian F. Edward-Ekpo can be reached via electronic means (Email) cyprian.edward@uniserl.education ; or, cyprian.edward@ilawdun.us ; Or, cyprian.edward@isherl.org ; Or, cyprian.edward@multi-intelligence.com